* Indicates festivals that have multiple app fee categories based on run time, venue capacity or number of performances. Companies may be charged additional fees by these festivals based on your final production selections. It is your responsibility to verify these fee structures or other restrictions before applying.

^ Indicates festivals that have overlapping dates on one weekend and that can possibly accommodate performance scheduling if artists wish to participate in both festivals. Please confirm scheduling considerations with each festival prior to applying.

Note: Some festivals can only accommodate a limited number of touring artists. Some of your selections may not be available and an alternate festival may need to be selected.
